Re: United States v. Eddie Mayo, 19 CR 176-02 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

I represent Eddie Mayo in the above-referenced matter under the Criminal Justice Act. I am writing to request a one-month adjournment of Mr. Mayo's sentencing, which is currently scheduled for June 9, 2020 at 10 a.m. The government consents to this request.

The reason for the request is the ongoing public health crisis. Additionally, because of an underlying medical issue, Mr. Mayo is vulnerable to becoming seriously ill if he contracts COVID-19. On March 31, 2020, Mr. Mayo was released on bail with the government's consent and is currently under home incarceration.

This is the second request for an adjournment of Mr. Mayo's sentencing date because of the COVID-19 crisis. The original date for sentencing was April 7, 2020. That date was adjourned with the government's consent. The pandemic is, obviously, an ongoing crisis, and it is unknown at this time when the serious risk that COVID-19 presents to Mr. Mayo's health will subside. Accordingly, counsel may seek a further adjournment if sentencing Mr. Mayo in July would endanger his health. For its part, the government has informed counsel that, where appropriate, it will consent to month-by-month adjournments and continue to monitor the situation.

Accordingly, I respectfully request with the government's consent a one-month adjournment of Mr. Mayo's sentence to a date in July 2020.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
Zachary S. Taylor
